ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My first thanks go to the many scholars and activists whose work I draw heavily upon in this book, especially: Annemarie Jagose, Anne Fausto-Sterling, Cordelia Fine, Estelle B. Freedman, Susan Stryker, Dean Spade, Judith Butler, Rebecca M. Jordan-Young and Lillian Faderman.

Secondly, to Jeffrey Lewis for believing in this project and in the necessity of interweaving social justice work with all artistic endeavors. A huge, special thank you to Dawn Reshen, whose idea it was that I write this book. Thank you for understanding how important it is that academics not be the only voices heard on these subjects. To my editor, Merrilee Warholak, and everyone at For Beginners. To Frank Weimann and Elyse Tanzillo, whose assistance in my literary career has been so great as to render most of my opportunities in their debt. To Chris Estey and Dave Halsell, for helping the book find a voice in a daunting marketplace. Belisa Vranich, for friendship and for saying all the right things.

Thank you to those who read early drafts and offered feedback: Sid Jordan, Noah Collins, Ingrid Dahl, and Emily Wittenhagen. Eva Jakubowicz, for assistance in transcribing interviews. To everyone who allowed me to interview them for this book. Special thanks to Scott Johnson, Hanna Shimona Kipnis King, Emery Lohrasbi, Ryan Weisberg, Jana Ekdahl, Sammy Grow and Loux. Barb Clark-Elliott and everyone at PFLAG. Aidan Key at Gender Odyssey. Jack Harrison, Justin Tanis, and both the National Gay and Lesbian Taskforce and the National Center for Trans Equality, for access to data sets. Jessica Mack, for current reproductive health information. Jon Horn, for art and synergy. Thank you to everyone at Reteaching Gender and Sexuality for the access and insights you offered me. Thank you to everyone at The Vera Project: You are my inspiration in every effort I make for a better world. Special thanks to Alison Kretitzberg, Theo Shure, Rani Ban, Sequoia O'Connell, Ryan Rood, Monica Martinez, Chris Reath, Kate Becker, Eric Carnell, Alix Kolar, Johnathan Smith, and Jeffery McNulty for constantly reminding me that my allyship matters.

Thank you to my family: My incredible parents, Robert and Diane Garbacik; my beloved brother, Jesse; Don and Linda Fucci; Bob and Eleanor Chezako; Kate Wing, Tom and Adam Gee. Thank you to all of my friends, both in Seattle and back east, for not giving up on me when I disappear into my work. Extra special thanks to Laura Borrelli, my platonic soul mate. Thank you for fiscal support in the completion of this book: Henry Joseph, Garrett Wenig, Jeffery McNulty, Andrew Parker, Paige Weinheimer, Tristan Carosino, Andrea Kao, Kristina Goetz, Sean Walker, Jon Horn, Kira Cox, Jocelyn Johnson, Morgan Hargraves, Patrick Kettner, David Dawes, Alex Billig, Don and Linda Fucci, Kim Berardi, Carole Powell-Gerber, Marc Mazique, Adam Phillabaum, and Jenny Wu.

Above all else, thank you to Joshua Powell for tireless support, encouragement, love, devotion, honesty, and always bringing out the best version of me. There is absolutely no way I could have done this without you.
